

BRUCE C. LAING, FAICP

Mr. Laing was appointed to the Central Puget Sound Growth Management Hearings Board on November 1, 2003 by Governor Gary Locke. He was elected to the King County Council in 1979 and served in that office through 1995. During his tenure on the King County Council he also served on the Council of the Municipality of Metropolitan Seattle (METRO) and on the Executive Board of the Puget Sound Regional Council (PSRC).

Bruce Laing is a charter member, and member of the College of Fellows, of the American Institute of Certified Planners. He has been a professional urban planner for more than thirty years. His planning career includes a wide variety of experiences: Proprietor of a planning and government relations consulting firm; Planner with the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development; Planner for a land development firm; Planner for an engineering and planning consulting firm; County zoning and subdivision hearing examiner.

Mr. Laing is a graduate of Seattle University and holds the degree Master of Urban Planning from the University of Washington.